

Welcome to the Repair Café

In order to have an item repaired at the Repair Café, we request each visitor to read and sign our House Rules:

- To cut down on unnecessary waiting times during busy periods, a maximum of ONE broken item per person will be examined at a time. The visitor will join the back of the line if they have a second item for repair.
- The work carried out in the Repair Café is performed free of charge on a voluntary basis by the repair volunteers at hand.
- Visitors will be encouraged to participate in the repairs themselves. Repair volunteers on site will mentor and help make the repairs.
- A voluntary donation is greatly appreciated.
- Any use of new materials such as wires, plugs, fuses, batteries, etc. will be paid for separately by the participant.
- Repair volunteers are entitled to refuse to repair certain objects at their discretion.
- Repair volunteers are not obliged to reassemble disassembled appliances that cannot be repaired.

- Visitors offering broken items for repair do so at their own risk.
- Repair volunteers offer no guarantee for the repairs carried out with their help and are not liable if objects that are repaired at the Repair Café turn out not to work properly at home.
- Visitors to the Repair Café are solely responsible for the tidy removal of broken objects that could not be repaired.
- Visitors are solely responsible for recycling or disposal of items that cannot be repaired. Organizers will help find a recycling solution over landfilling, but the visitor must take care of disposal.
- The fact that the repairs are being performed by unpaid volunteers reflects the allocation of risks and limitation of liability: neither the organizers of the Repair Café nor the repair volunteers are liable for any loss that may result from advice or instructions concerning repairs, for the loss of items handed over for repair, for indirect or consequential loss or for any other kind of loss resulting from work performed in the Repair Café. The limitations set forth in these house rules shall not apply to claims declared justified on the basis of liability arising by virtue of applicable consumer protection legislation which cannot be lawfully superseded.
